APPENDIX A - DEFINITIONS

As used in these Mines’ Financial Policies, the following definitions shall apply, unless the applicable Policy expressly states otherwise.

Advance Payments: A payment made for goods or services prior to the receipt thereof.

After-the-Fact Purchase: Occurs when liabilities are incurred or payments are made on the School’s behalf without prior approval via a School purchase order or contract when a purchase order or contract is required.

Approving Authority: The person within the Organizational Unit that is responsible for ensuring that financial transactions recorded against an Index are appropriate.

Board: The Board of Trustees of the Colorado School of Mines.

Capital Construction: Shall have the meaning described in C.R.S. §24-75-301(1), as now or hereafter amended.

Capital Construction Fund: A fund created for the purpose of constructing, purchasing, building, and/or maintaining land and buildings for use by the School.

Cash Advance: An amount of money approved by the Organizational Unit and the Controller’s Office that is given to an employee to cover incidental out-of-pocket expenses related to Official School Business while In Travel Status.

Change Fund: An amount of money advanced to the departments that accept cash from customers and, therefore, must have cash available to make change.

Change Fund Custodian: The individual designated by the appropriate department and approved by the controller as responsible for safeguarding and disbursing from a change fund.

Commitment Voucher: A purchase order, a contract, an approved travel authorization, or any other document appropriate to the fiscal transaction as prescribed by School policies and procedures, which provides support that an obligation of the School is being charged to the appropriate account and that purchasing requirements have been satisfied. Additional examples of commitment vouchers include, but are not limited to: grant contracts, license agreements, parking license agreements, and any other contract involving the payment of School funds.

Controlled Maintenance Project: A capital project funded for the purpose of performing routine maintenance of campus facilities.

Course: A seminar, an extended learning event, or continuing education course offered by Mines to non-Mines’ Students, faculty, or staff as a part of the core business function of the School.

Deficit: Actual expenses plus encumbrances that exceeds the total approved budget or available net assets, as recorded or reflected in the Finance System, in the Index for which the activity is recorded.

Donation: Irrevocable cash and non-cash contributions to the School, departments, or student organizations for which the donor receives nothing in exchange.

Employee: An individual who holds a School faculty, administrative faculty, classified, or student employment appointment, whether full-time, part-time, temporary, seasonal, or hourly.
Entertainment Expenses: Expenditures for social functions, entertainment events, food, beverages, tickets for shows or sporting events and related supplies for events, which involve one or more School employees and or one or more guests and the purpose of the expenditure is to represent the School or provide reciprocity of hospitality or build business relationships in pursuit of School goals.

Equipment: Any tangible personal property that has a useful life greater than 1 year and a cost of more than $5,000, which is not a permanent part of a building and does not lose its identity through incorporation into a more complex unit.

Fundraising Events: An event at which a required monetary payment to attend or participate includes both a gift component (charitable contribution) and a non-gift component (goods and/or services are provided or available to the attendees, sponsors, or donors). The event will most often be completed in a single day; however, the event may consist of a multi-day, singularly identifiable event, such as a trip or cultural celebration weekend. This type of event differs from a conference in that some portion of the attendees’ payment is intended to be tax deductible. Examples of such events include the collection of gifts or money through sale or auction of merchandise or services, collection of registration or sponsorship fees with a promise of a tax deduction, imposition of admission charges or registration fees with a promise of a tax deduction, and/or membership fees.

Gift: Irrevocable cash and non-cash contributions to departments or student organizations for which the donor receives nothing in exchange. Donors may place certain restrictions on the use of the funds with which the School must comply.

Incidental Expenses: Fees and tips given to porters, baggage carriers, bellhops, hotel maids, and skycaps for airport check-in, and cost of personal telephone calls. Incidental Expenses do not include expenses for laundry, cleaning and pressing of clothing, and lodging taxes.

Index: A unique combination of Fund, Organization, and Program code numbers within the Finance System that is used to record financial transactions.

Meetings/Conferences: An auxiliary activity to conduct a formal activity of a number of people, primarily other than employees or associates, for discussion or consultation on a serious and identified topic, where admission is charged to those attending. Unlike the admission fee for a fundraising event, the admission fee for a conference is not intended to be tax-deductible, either in total or in part. Activities include professional meetings and or conferences hosted by the school for associated professional/educational organizations.

Metropolitan Area: A region including a city and the densely populated surrounding areas that are socially and economically integrated with it. For purposes of these Policies, a radius of 50 miles from the School is deemed to be the Metropolitan Area.

Non-employee: Any person who does not meet the definition for employee.

Non-remuneration employee: Any person who is not a current employee of the School but has a zero pay contract authorized and approved by the appropriate VP that is currently on file and covers the dates for which the individual will be working for the School.

Official Function: Those meetings, special events, and graduation functions hosted by an Organizational Unit and attended by guests and or other associates or employees held for an Official School Business purpose.
